Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

RESOLUTION NO. 1-23-84-A

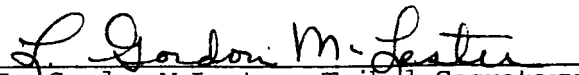

- WHEREAS, the authority of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is recognized by the treaties with the United States; and,
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council has delegated to the Oneida Business Committee authority to exercise the enumerated powers of the Oneida Constitution, Article IV as amended; and,
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee was given the responsibility for the health, safety, and welfare of Oneida Tribal Members; and,
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Income Maintenance is charged with addressing the needs of the low income needs of Oneida Tribal members; and,
- WHEREAS, the people of the Oneida Tribes Human Service Programs have identified the need for an improved Social Service structure for the Tribe as a whole; and,
- WHEREAS, the continued and unaddressed issue of an inadequate Social Service system has contributed to the mishandling and sometimes neglect of such instances of, domestic violence, incest, child abuse, suicide, attempted suicide, alcohol, and other abuse as well as the break up of the once treasured family structure; and,
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Income Maintenance has established through meetings with Brown and Outagamie County Social Service agencies, that the problems mentioned above, for the most part go unaddressed by their agencies; and,
- WHEREAS, because of the Oneida Tribes's inadequacy to remedy problems in the Human Services area and because the Counties of Brown and Outagamie remain remote and insensitive to these same social problems; and,
- THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that the Oneida Tribe will initiate the first steps in bridging the gap between the two counties of Brown and Outagamie, the State and the Federal Government to ensure that these problems of Human Service concerns be addressed; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the Business Committee, hereby requests from the State of Wisconsin, a Human Services Facilitator position that will perform the task of bridging the gap of needed services; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the priority of Human Service issues be given careful and serious consideration in this new year ahead so that the people most effected by these services are given new life.
