Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 3-13-96-E

PROCLAMATION: National Public Health Week April 1-7, 1996

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1, of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida nation has determined that the overall goal of the Oneida Nation is to protect, maintain and improve the standard of living and the environment in which the Oneida people live, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Nation is committed to the improvement of health and wellness of the people for the next seven generations, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Nation wishes to recognize that promoting the health and quality of life of all of the members of the Oneida nation is a major goal of our Nation; and
- WHEREAS, appreciating that public health programs and services as provided by the Oneida Community health Center benefit everyone, regardless of race, ethnicity, and socioeconomic status, and are essential for the establishment of a strong, successful nation wide health care system; and
- WHEREAS, acknowledging that public health activities protect everyone from infectious diseases, environmental and workplace hazards, chronic diseases, unintentional injuries and violence, and, realizing that educating people about the benefits of adopting healthful behaviors can empower them to attain good health and prevent needless suffering; and

WHEREAS: the Oneida Nation is pleased to applaud the aid provided nationwide by Oneida Community Health Center health workers and recognize that public health workers in this Nation play crucial roles in ensuring that all persons have the opportunity to be healthy people living in healthy communities in a healthy world.

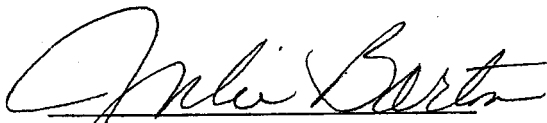

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin through its elected government, the Oneida Business Committee, hereby proclaims April 1-7, 1996 as National Public Health Week and hereby commends the Oneida Community Health Center.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that this proclamation shall be in the form of health educations and prevention activities for the Oneida community, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: that the Oneida nation and Oneida Community Health Center shall provide their full support and commitment to these events.
