UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 3-15-95 E

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, child abuse is a community problem and finding solutions depends on involvement among people throughout the community, and
- WHEREAS, statistics of children who are abused and neglected escalate each year, and
- WHEREAS, the effective child abuse programs succeed because of partnerships created among social service agencies, schools, spiritual organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the community enterprises, and
- WHEREAS, youth-serving prevention programs offer positive alternatives for young people and encourage youth to develop strong ties to their community, and
- WHEREAS, the wellness of our children, families and community is dependent on the actions and traditions we promote actively today, and
- WHEREAS, all community members need to become more aware of child abuse and its prevention within the community, and to become involved in supporting parents to raise their children in a safe environment, and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin hereby proclaims April as Child Abuse Prevention Month, and calls upon all community members' community programs, enterprises and spiritual organizations to increase their participation in our efforts to prevent child abuse, thereby strengthening the community in which we live.
