P.O. BOX 636 ASHLAND, WISCONSIN 54806 • PHONE (715) 682-5202

RESOLUTION NO. 8-21-78-B

- WHEREAS, Indians of the Oneida tribe support the Indian Child Welfare Act objectives designed to support Indian family stability and eliminate the separation of Indian children from their families and communities, and
- WHEREAS, Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council, Inc. has begun a program of foster care recruitment for Indian children by Indian families, and
- WHEREAS, This program was evaluated and recommendations included expanding the staff to allow more time in recruitment and linkages with Social Services licensing units and judicial and law enforcement agencies, and less time in travel, and providing assistance to those tribes wishing to develop their own children's codes and licensing capability, and
- WHEREAS, There are funds available to Inter-Tribal Organizations under P.L. 93-638 which will not reduce P.L. 93-638 tribally allocated funds.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Oneida Tribal Council hereby endorses the submission of this Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council, Inc. Child and Family Outreach Proposal to receive P.L. 93-638 funds or other non-assigned BIA or IHS funds for the purpose of assisting tribes to control the placement of tribal members in non-tribally approved foster and adoptive care.
